

November 15, 2002

Fabiola Ehlers-Zavala

Convention Chair Ana King reported that a number of proposals for presentations had already been received and that speakers Joy Reid and David Nunan had agreed to conduct follow-up sessions after their plenaries. Director of Exhibits and Advertising Marsha Santelli said that several publishers had reserved tables for the convention.

Laurie Martin announced that she had a committee in place to organize the April 12 Spring Workshop

Pam Forbes, Secondary Education SIGS Co-Chair, reported that “Breakfast with Adela Weinsten,” an event co-sponsored by ITBE and School District U-46, was set to take place on November 23.

Nominations Chair Bob Keser is looking for candidates to serve in various capacities on the Board. The Call for Nominations with in the Winter 2002-003 issue of the ITBE Newsletter and is posted at our website, www.itbe.org